U3A Banyule Volunteering Opportunities

U3A is a not-for-profit organisation with no paid staff and is solely dependent on volunteers.

Volunteering is a rewarding, social and inclusive experience. We encourage members to share their special knowledge, skills and interests by offering to volunteer in the following areas:

Office and management duties

- Serving on the Committee of Management
- Staffing the U3A Banyule office - for 2 hours per month, 10.00am – 12 noon, Monday – Friday (except Public Holidays and a month in December/January)
- Publicity
- Computer skills
- Assisting with social events, for example, catering

Tutoring - for further information, refer to www.u3abanyule.org.au

Organising speakers for talks

Leading excursions (eg museums, art galleries, gardens, and places of interest)
