

Policy Guideline 01 - Privacy

Introduction

1. U3A Banyule recognises the importance of protecting members' privacy in relation to their personal information.

Purpose

2. The purpose of this policy is to set out members' privacy rights and to document the framework that U3A Banyule will apply when collecting, storing and using members' personal information.

Policy

3. This policy applies to any information collected by U3A Banyule that can be used to identify an individual member. We may collect and record the following types of personal information about members:
 - name
 - postal, street and/or email addresses
 - telephone contact number/s
 - previous profession or occupation
 - skills or interests
 - emergency contact details
 - image (photo or video)
 - other information you provide to us through member surveys or for other purposes.
4. U3A Banyule will collect personal information about each member directly from the member in question. This will be done through membership and course registration processes. Approval to use a member's image/s in U3A Banyule publications and the website will be sought on the Membership Application and Membership Renewal forms; members who decline to permit use of their image will be required to opt out of U3A Banyule photographs. From time to time, other information may be collected for statistical purposes via a survey or by other methods. Only general statistical results will be made public and no personal information provided.
5. U3A Banyule collects personal information from members so that we can provide services and perform functions that are consistent with our Rules including:
 - to make classes and other activities available to members;
 - for communication, administrative, promoting and planning purposes;
 - for program development, quality control and research purposes;
 - to maintain accurate and up-to-date membership records.
6. U3A Banyule will:
 - only collect information that is consistent with our primary purpose and Rules inform members of the reason why information is collected and how it is administered;
 - inform members that any personal information held about them is accessible to them;
 - take all reasonable steps to ensure that personal information held is accurate and up-to-date;
 - take all reasonable steps to ensure that personal information held is protected from misuse, loss and unauthorised access.
7. Members' personal information will not be shared or disclosed other than as described in this policy. Personal information will not be made available to others for direct marketing purposes.

8. For purposes that are directly relevant to our Rules, U3A Banyule may disclose your personal information to:
 - volunteers (for example tutors, office volunteers and the Committee of Management);
 - employees, contractors or service providers where it is essential to the service to be provided.
9. As our website is linked to the internet, and the internet is inherently insecure, we cannot provide any assurance regarding the security of transmission of information you communicate to us online and these communications will be at members own risk.

Procedures

10. Members may request access to any personal information U3A Banyule holds about them by contacting U3A Banyule’s Membership and Email Manager who will aim to provide a suitable means of accessing the information.
11. Where a member believes that personal information held about him/her is incomplete or inaccurate the member may ask the Membership and Email Manager to amend it.
12. Where a member believes their privacy has been breached, they should contact U3A Banyule’s Secretary and provide details of the incident so that it can be investigated.
13. Any questions or concerns about this policy, or a complaint regarding the treatment of personal information, should be referred to U3A Banyule’s Secretary.
14. U3A Banyule will treat confidentially all requests or complaints lodged regarding this policy. We will contact you within a reasonable time after receipt of your complaint to discuss your concerns and to outline options regarding how they may be resolved. We will aim to ensure that your complaint is resolved in a timely, impartial and appropriate manner.

Responsibilities

15. U3A Banyule’s Committee of Management is responsible for:
 - developing, adopting, implementing and publishing this policy;
 - collecting, storing and using members personal information in accordance with this policy;
 - investigating complaints about the handling of personal information;
 - approving access to personal information consistent with this policy;
 - monitoring and revising this policy as and when the need arises.
16. U3A Banyule’s Secretary is responsible for: receiving enquiries about this policy and complaints about a potential breach of this policy; and, for bringing a complaint before the Committee of Management for investigation and resolution.
17. U3A Banyule’s Membership and Email Manager is responsible for responding to a member’s request for access to the personal information held by U3A Banyule about that member and for requests to correct personal information that is believed to be inaccurate or out of date.

Authorisation
